Father Tyrrell Dead
Priest Who Withdrew from the Jesuits Receives Absolution.

London, July 16.—Father George Tyrrell, whose sympathies with the modernist movement in the Catholic Church caused him to withdraw from the Society of Jesus and brought him into trouble at the Vatican, died yesterday after an illness which began on July 6 and throughout which he remained partly inarticulate.

M. D. Petre, in whose house Father Tyrrell died, stated that the priest of the Diocese of Southwark was called in because both Petre and Baron Friedrich von Hügel, one of his friends, were convinced that Tyrrell would wish to receive all the rites of the Catholic Church, that Father Tyrrell apparently made his confession to this priest, received conditional absolution, and that extreme unction was administered, communion being out of the question, owing to the absence of the power of absolution. Father Tyrrell was conscious while extreme unction was being administered.

Father Tyrrell's intimate friend, Abbe Bremond, was present at the end and had an opportunity, in a moment of very clear consciousness, the evening before his death, to tell Father Tyrrell and accepting such confession as he could make by signs and giving him his last absolution.

BAR HARBOR.
By Vote of 542 to 27 Residents Say Roads not Suited to Machines.

Bar Harbor, Me., July 16.—By a vote of 542 to 27, Bar Harbor yesterday excluded automobiles entirely from the roads of the island. Within ten days the last automobile will have to leave the limits of the town of Eden, in which Bar Harbor is situated. Automobiles have been a long and bitter one, and during the past year has been waged with extreme heat.

The fight on the island, while admirably adapted for carriage driving, picturesquely winding and narrow, are in many places little more than death traps if fast cars are admitted.

and nerve specialist, has been a leader in the fight against them, as L. E. Opdycke of New York. The measure was supported by practically the entire Summer colony, with the exception of George W. Vanderbilt, who has left his cottage here and who Newport because of the action of the town.

A bitter fight was carried on in the Legislature last Winter to permit the town to shut out motor cars, after which the enabling act passed both House and Senate without a dissenting vote. The last hope of the automobilists is the test case tried some weeks ago before a full bench. A decision is expected soon. The case rests upon the constitutionality of the exclusion law. Three other towns on the island voted on the measure this week. Southwest Harbor this morning and Tremont and Mount Desert on Saturday morning. The only town in which there is any doubt as to the result is Southwest Harbor.
